

Ryan Remote Operations Center

Customized solutions and services based on your operating needs are what you can count on from Ryan Directional Services. We pride ourselves in specializing in wellbore placement; the services and technologies that we provide ensure consistent optimization of your drilling program.

The Ryan Remote Operations Center makes your directional drilling program more cost effective and accurate by implementing preventive measures that eliminate surprises throughout the drilling process. With 24/7 monitoring and consistent communication, our team of experienced engineers and operational specialists will accurately assess and react to the ever-changing wellbore environment. Rest easy—we have you covered.

Features and Benefits

- Effectively limits risk exposure and reduces logistics to maximize service quality and mitigate NPT
- Oversight of standard operating procedures to guarantee the highest level of service quality

- Actively monitor M/LWD systems and provide full package reports and logs to clients
- Provide directional drilling guidance for full package directional wells
- Provide anti-collision monitoring services
- Bottom hole assembly design and optimization services
- Assurance that best drilling practices are used to maximize Ryan Directional Services ability to effectively deliver a timely, accurate and cost effective directional drilling service.

RYAN DIRECTIONAL SERVICES

A NABORS COMPANY